i know i did, that's for sure we're men, and part of being a man is having stress in your life, right?
it's true that we as men typically have quite a bit of stress in our lives:

119, 804dash;21 (2010)), enacted by congress in march 2010 as part of the patient protection and affordable care act, sets up a pathway for so-called "follow-on" biologics
